From the Daily Bulletin, Tuesday, January 9: We find a very dull market throughout, and little of interest to advise. On Brazil: holders continue to offer with moderation, and ask former rates for all grades, but in the absence of sales, values are somewhat nominal, and naturally almost entirely void of buoyancy. Of West India descriptions the stock is small in first hands, and nothing of consequense to attract a demand, while Java. &c., without movement, owing to the inability of buyers and sellers to agree upon terms. The general jobbing demand shows a moderate amount of activity, but the movement is not particularly encouraging. We learn of no invoice sales for the day, either here or at the outports. We quote
